

Lindemann Fellowship for Private International Law

A New Year: Questions and Answers

The Lindemann Fellowship for Private International Law is entering its third application round! To mark this occasion and launch the next call for applications, the Fellowship coordinators are hosting an event on:

7 Oktober 2026

3:00 PM (CEST) via Zoom

The following current fellows will be present at the event to share their experiences with the Fellowship:

Charlotte Wendland (LMU Munich) and Benjamin Saunier (Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne)

Afterwards, these Fellows as well as the coordinators Marta Pertegás Sender and Konrad Duden will answer your questions about the Lindemann Fellowship, which supports early-career researchers in private international law. The Fellowship includes an annual fully-funded two-day meeting where Fellows present their current research. The next meeting will be held in April 2027 at the University of Maastricht. More information can be found here.

We look forward to welcoming you! To receive the Zoom-Link to join the event, please send a short email to lindemann-fellowship@uni-hamburg.de.

The Fellowship coordinators:

Etienne Pataut
Université Paris 1 Panthéon-
Sorbonne

Andrew Dickinson
University of Oxford

Konrad Duden
University of Hamburg

Agnieszka Frąckowiak-Adamska
University of Wrocław

Pietro Franzina
Università Cattolica del Sacro
Cuore, Milan

Ralf Michaels
Max Planck Institute, Hamburg

Jerca Kramberger Škerl
University of Ljubljana

Marta Pertegás Sender
University of Maastricht