SEMINAR AND MOOT COURT WITH FIELD TRIP TO BGH

TAKEOVER LAW BEFORE THE FEDERAL SUPREME COURT

© Joe Miletzki

PRELIMINARY MEETING: 01.03.2023 AT 6:15 PM PER ZOOM
SEMINAR/MOOT COURT: MID MAY 2023
FIELD TRIP TO BGH: 22 - 23 MAY 2023

During the Summer Semester 2023 Professor Dörte Poelzig, together with Volker Sander (RiBGH) is offering a seminar with moot court on a current Federal Supreme Court case from the area of takeover law. Using the original case file, the seminar participants will draft the appeal briefs and simulate the oral proceedings in a "mini-moot court". During the subsequent field trip to Karlsruhe, the participants will attend the actual oral proceedings of the Federal Court of Justice for the case they worked on, as well as visit the Federal Constitutional Court.

A seminar certificate - as per PromO regulations - can be acquired. It is not possible to write an SPB essay. The seminar is aimed at all students from the 5th semester onwards, prior knowledge of capital market and corporate law is an advantage. The revision briefs are to be prepared in small groups in April 2023. The moot court will take place in mid-May 2023 in presence at the UHH, the field trip to the BGH is planned on 22nd and 23rd May 2023. Further information on the organisation and costs will be provided during the preliminary meeting (via Zoom) scheduled on 1st March 2023, 6:15 pm.

If you are interested, please send an email to roberta.porchietto@uni-hamburg.de stating your semester and, if applicable, your SP area. Registration deadline for the preliminary meeting is 26th February 2023.
