

HAMBURG LECTURES IN LAW AND ECONOMICS

SUMMER TERM 2018

18.04.2018	Sovereign Debt Restructuring - Including a Model-Law Approach Prof. Steven Schwarcz (Duke University Durham)
25.04.2018	Politics as Exchange? - Buchanan's Foundations of Democratic Economic Policy & Beyond Prof. Hartmut Kliemt (University of Gießen)
02.05.2018	The Impact of Two Different Economic Systems on Dishonesty and Charitable Giving: Determinants of Group-Level Variation Prof. Lars Hornuf (University of Bremen)
09.05.2018	Policymaking in the Executive: Expertise and Citizen Participation Prof. Susan Rose-Ackermann (Yale Law School)
16.05.2018	Blood Oil Prof. Leif Wenar (King's College London)
23.05.2018	Poorly Drafted Billion Dollar Contracts: Using Text Analysis to Identify Inefficiencies in Commercial Agreements Julian Nyarko (UC Berkeley School of Law)
30.05.2018	Climate Change, Efficiency and Future Generations Prof. John Broome (University of Oxford)
06.06.2018	The Effect of Minority Veto Rights on Controller Tunneling Prof. Ehud Kamar (Tel Aviv University)

13.06.2018	Tax-Exempt Lobbying: Corporate Philanthropy as a Tool for Political Influence Prof. Ray Fisman (Boston University)
20.06.2018	The Intersection of Private and Public International Law Prof. Rachel Brewster (Duke University Durham)
27.06.2018	The Global Challenge of Energy Access Prof. Johannes Urpelainen (Johns Hopkins University Washington)
04.07.2018	The Use of Economics for Understanding Law: A Guided Tour Prof. Thomas Miceli (University Connecticut)

Room 1083a, Von-Melle-Park 5
Wednesday, 6.15 pm

INSTITUTE OF LAW AND ECONOMICS

Prof. Dr. Georg Ringe

Prof. Dr. Stefan Voigt

Jun.-Prof. Dr. Franziska Weber

www.ile-hamburg.de