

Faculty/Department: Law/Prof. Dr. Stefan Voigt
Seminar/Institute: Institute of Law & Economics

Universität Hamburg invites applications for a Research Associate (Postdoc) in accordance with Section 28 subsection 2 of the Hamburg higher education act (Hamburgisches Hochschulgesetz, HmbHG). The position commences on 1 February 2019 or later.

It is remunerated at the salary level TV-L 13. Providing that a position is available and that requirements have been fulfilled, the associate may apply for temporary civil servant status in accordance with Section 28 subsection 2 HmbHG.

The position is full-time and comprises 39 hours per week (40 for civil servants).

The fixed-term nature of this contract is based upon Section 2 of the academic fixed-term labor contract act (Wissenschaftszeitvertragsgesetz, WissZeitVG). The initial fixed term is three years. The contract provides for a maximum extension of up to three years depending on the associate's achievements during the first stage.

The University aims to increase the number of women in research and teaching and explicitly encourages women to apply. Equally qualified female applicants will receive preference in accordance with the Hamburg act on gender equality (Hamburgisches Gleichstellungsgesetz, HmbGleiG).

Responsibilities:

Duties include teaching and research in the respective department or institute. Research associates can also pursue independent research and further academic qualifications as well as acquire teaching experience. These duties are intended to promote academic achievement. Therefore, at least one-third of set working hours will be made available for the associate's own academic work.

Specific Duties:

Design and implement experiments – both on cooperation with others as well as autonomously.

Requirements:

A university degree in a relevant subject plus doctorate.

Applicants should demonstrate thorough knowledge of empirical law and economics as well as quantitative empirical research methods, with a special focus on behavioral economics and experimental research. Sound knowledge of political economy and new institutional economics is also desirable.

Applicants should bring extensive academic experience, proven by publications in international peer-reviewed journals. In addition to interdisciplinary methods, the Faculty of Law also focuses on international legal questions. Thus we particularly welcome research that takes a comparative approach to different countries and economic investigations into international law. They are also required to have teaching experience, particularly in the field of empirical methods. The Faculty welcomes familiarity with teaching courses for students from various disciplines. Applicants should provide details of their teaching experience and objectives.

Universität Hamburg

DER FORSCHUNG | DER LEHRE | DER BILDUNG

Severely disabled applicants will receive preference over equally qualified non-disabled applicants.

For further information, please contact Prof. Dr. Stefan Voigt at +49-40-42838-5782 or stefan.voigt@uni-hamburg.de or consult our website at www.jura.uni-hamburg.de.

Applications should include a cover letter, curriculum vitae, and copies of degree certificate(s). The application deadline is 4 February 2019. Please send applications to:

University of Hamburg Institute of Law & Economics
Ms Janina Satzer
Johnsallee 35
20148 Hamburg Germany
janina.satzer@ile-hamburg.de