

‘The Promises and Perils of Social Sciences in International Law’

8 September 2021, Stockholm

<https://ucph-ku.zoom.us/j/63116109770?pwd=ZEJmMEtsZEs1Vi9oMTFpQXRrZ0RQdz09>

Meeting ID: 631 1610 9770 ; Passcode: 104165

Organised by IG convenors : Veronika Fikfak, Daniel Peat, Eva van der Zee

3.00-4.30 PM Panel 1

Anne van Aaken

The Bun and the Meat - Better Together: A Hamburger Theory of International Law

Ezgi Yildiz and Umut Yuksel

Back to Basics – Conversational Interdisciplinarity

Silvia Steininger and Raphael Oidtmann

The Blind Man and an Elephant – Framing ‘Social Sciences’ in International Law

Monika Naime

On Interdisciplinarity

Commentators: Shahd Hammouri and Sigurd Dhondt

4.30-6.00 PM Panel 2

Moshe Hirsch

Sociology, Cognitive Sociology and International Law

Tommaso Soave

From Grand Theory to Everyday Stories – The Promise and Pitfalls of Micro-ethnography in the Study of International Law

Phil Saengkrai

Towards a Socio-Doctrinal Approach: Insights from Bordieu’s Field Theory

Nadia Kornioti

Thoughts on International Law and the Social Sciences in Researching ‘Frozen’ Conflicts

Commentators: Matjaž Nahtigal and Teodora Drajeanu