

Call for Papers

The European Master in Law and Economics will organize its annual Midterm Meeting, including a

Law and Economics Workshop, on Friday 18 February 2022

Papers in any field of Law and Economics are welcome to be submitted for presentation at this workshop, which is open to all interested researchers. Scholars affiliated with the EMLE Programme are encouraged to present their work in progress as well.

Prospective speakers are encouraged to indicate in their application whether they would like to discuss the paper of another speaker. We will make proposals for papers in the field of interest of the speaker.

Please send an abstract of your paper or the full paper together with an abstract by email. In your email, please indicate whether and how you are affiliated with the Programme and whether you would like to discuss the paper of another speaker. Please send your application to:

mtm22info@emle.org

Submission deadline: 7 January 2022.

Notification of acceptance: at the latest 14 January 2022.

Given the developments of the Covid-19 pandemic and the local and international measures taken, we have decided to host the Midterm Meeting in an online format this year.

Additional information will be made available at www.emle.org
