

Call for Papers

China-EU Law Journal

Volume 1 • Numbers 1–2 • November 2011

CHINA-EU Law Journal

Journal of the China-EU School of Law
at the China University of Political Science and Law

EDITORIAL 1

ARTICLES

Intellectual property law in the People's Republic of China: a powerful economic tool for innovation and development
A. Wechsler 3

Harmonisation of European contract law: with special emphasis on consumer law
N. Reich 55

European financial market regulation in the wake of the financial crisis: a functional approach
C.H. Seibt · S. Schwarz 95

BOOK REVIEWS

L. Zhang: Judicial review of the legality of administrative acts in China
P. Dollat 119

L. Chen: The making of Chinese condominium law: a comparative perspective with American and South African condominium laws
B. Li 125

S. Luginbuehl: European patent law: towards a uniform interpretation
T. Jaeger 131

P. Farah and R. Soprano: Dumping e antidumping: una guida per le imprese di fronte alle sfide della globalizzazione
A. Forganni 137

Journal of the China-EU School of Law
at the China University of Political Science and Law

The China-EU Law Journal (CELJ) is a peer-reviewed publication that brings together Chinese, European and international perspectives on law. The range of coverage extends to Chinese law, European legal developments of significance to China; legal aspects of China-European Union relations and perspectives on China and Europe in a globalizing world.

The scope of the journal includes, but is not limited to, the following topics:

- Chinese law
- European legal developments of specific importance to China
- The law of China-EU relations
- China and Europe in a globalizing world.

CELJ welcomes comparative and interdisciplinary approaches. Studies on Chinese law from a European perspective and studies on European law from a Chinese perspective are of particular interest. CELJ accepts articles presenting genuine research findings as well as reports and book reviews. Article manuscripts should not exceed 10000 words including footnotes.

We are looking forward to your submission. For more information about the journal and how to submit an article or book review, please visit <https://www.springer.com/journal/12689>
You are also most welcome to contact Mr. Monty Silley, CELJ European Executive Co-Dean and Associate Editor at monty.silley@uni-hamburg.de.

The activities of the China-EU School of Law are co-funded by the European Union and the People's Republic of China.

