CESL Summer School

16th August – 3th September 2010
in Hamburg, Germany

CESL Summer School: The Europe Experience

The second Summer School of the China-EU School of Law (CESL) will be held from 16th August to 3th September 2010 in Hamburg. Students of the CESL Master of Law Programme as well as PhD students will have the opportunity to gain deeper insights into the German and European legal systems. They will take a look behind the scenes of the main actors in the field, such as the Federal Parliament of Germany (Deutscher Bundestag), the European Parliament, and the European Commission. In lectures given by scholars of the Europa-Kolleg Hamburg, the University of Hamburg and the Max-Planck-Institute for Foreign and International Private Law, they will learn about European law from a German perspective.

Thanks to the CESL Summer School these students get the opportunity to explore how European law emerges and how it is implemented and applied in the Member States – as well as the impact of International Law. In addition, they will have the chance to speak to key representatives at various institutions.

The CESL Summer School is hosted by the Europa-Kolleg Hamburg, where the lectures are held and the students are accommodated, and the Faculty of Law at the University of Hamburg.

The CESL Summer School would not be possible without the commitment and hospitality of all those institutions who allow the students interesting insights into their work.
